BOUNDLESS BROTHERHOOD

Explore the strands that make up our community

Dear Alumni, Families and Friends,

It is my hope that 2024 has been good for all of you thus far. The new year is a time to reflect on the previous year. As I do so, I am reminded of how blessed we are as a Calvert Hall community. We have amazing faculty and staff who are dedicated to our Lasallian Mission of educating the whole person. We have great students who believe and live the Brotherhood every day. We have parents and families who support their sons. I am also always impressed by how our families support each other. We have terrific alumni who stay connected and committed to The Hall. The Greater Baltimore region recognizes our outstanding community, and it is reflected in this year's admissions application pool. We have had another application submission record year and look forward to welcoming another great class to the Brotherhood in August.

This issue of The Cardinal shines a bright light on 12 of our students. These young men have excelled in many ways in and out of the classroom. They are artists, athletes, leaders, musicians and so much more. While they each have their own story, they also share how the Brotherhood of Calvert Hall has impacted them. They are wonderful representatives of our student body, and the amazing thing is, we could fill hundreds more pages with similar stories. We say at Calvert Hall that there is something for everyone. Students are encouraged to step out of their comfort zone to find their unique path. At the same time, there is a unity expressed through the Brotherhood. The theme for this school year is 'Boundless Brotherhood' and we see that evident here daily.

I am grateful for everyone who continues to support our Mission of educating a vastly diverse community. There are many young men who are afforded the opportunity because of your support and generosity. We cannot do this without you. We are coming to the end of our $28 million capital campaign in June. To date, we have raised $27 million. A sizable portion of the money raised will go to tuition assistance. We are not done yet! We invite you to join the campaign and be the one that helps us surpass our goal. Every gift, every dollar, makes a difference.

I would be remiss if I did not acknowledge Chuck Stembler's next chapter. As many of you know, Chuck will become the next president of Cardinal Newman High School in West Palm Beach, Florida, effective on July 1, 2024. This is a wonderful opportunity for him, and we wish him the best. Chuck has been an amazing leader at Calvert Hall for nearly four decades, and he will be missed. A national search for his successor has begun.

Thank you again for your support of Calvert Hall and our young men. On behalf of the Board of Trustees, our faculty, staff, and students, I wish this year to be a blessed one for you and your family.

St. John Baptiste de La Salle.....Pray for Us!
Live Jesus in our Hearts.....Forever!

Sincerely,
Brother John Kane

SCHOLARSHIP

The Rollins-Luetkemeyer Foundation Matching Challenge for Middle Income Scholarships

In this spirit, recognizing the challenges faced by middle income families seeking to secure a quality secondary education for their sons, the Rollins-Luetkemeyer Foundation (R-L) has partnered with Calvert Hall to provide scholarship grant assistance. The Foundation has pledged $250,000 and challenged Calvert Hall to match it 2:1 with $500,000 for a total of $750,000 designated for middle income families.

The R-L Scholarship Grant will provide tuition support for students who demonstrate a commitment to excellence in their academic endeavors. Each year, grants will be awarded to outstanding student scholars from middle-class families who qualify for financial aid and whose joint household incomes are between $75,000 and $150,000 annually. The award lasts the duration of the student's attendance at Calvert Hall.

As the Co-founder and Managing Director of Maquette Fine Art Services, I've had the unique privilege of merging my deep-rooted passion for art with a flourishing career in art logistics and management. Based in the heart of New York City, Maquette stands as a testament to quality art handling, installation, and transportation, crafted for the discerning needs of museums, collectors, and galleries alike.

My own path in the art world was kindled at Calvert Hall College, where I was a proud member of the Class of '92. Here, I was under the tutelage of Victor Janishefski, affectionately known as "Mr. J." His mentorship wasn't just about mastering the processes of making art; it was a journey of personal and artistic evolution, one that laid the groundwork for my relentless pursuit of distinctive craftsmanship.

A testament to Mr. J's influence reaching beyond Calvert Hall's walls was a serendipitous encounter in 1992, my freshman year in New York City. Alone and navigating new beginnings, I met Richard Kiggins, Jr. '88, a graduate student at Pratt Institute. I knew the name well, as Mr. J had often spoken of a Richard Kiggin's exemplary skills and character, painting him as a role model for us. This meeting was a full circle moment, connecting the values instilled by Mr. J to the real-world embodiment of those principles. It was a poignant reminder that the lessons from Calvert Hall were more than academic; they were seeds of greatness, fostering a shared bond that has endured over the years.

Furthering my artistic education, I garnered a BFA from Pratt Institute and an MFA in Sculpture from Hunter College. These experiences honed my creative acumen, blending it seamlessly with a burgeoning sense of business. This unique combination led me to establish Maquette Fine Art Services in New York City. Over the past 13 years, our focus has been steadfast: delivering service with a personal touch, fostering open communication, and embracing growth and innovation.

UNPACKING THE ART OF MENTORING

Today, our footprint extends beyond New York, with operations in Boston and New Haven, CT. Our clientele is as diverse as it is prestigious, encompassing museums, private collectors, and galleries. The latest chapter in our story is particularly close to my heart – a return to my home state of Maryland. This expansion into the DMV region isn't just about growth; it's a homecoming. We're poised to collaborate with major institutions like the National Gallery of Art, the Smithsonian, Baltimore Museum of Art, and others. Our new facility in Maryland's capital region marks a significant milestone in our journey, one that I am incredibly excited about.

Reflecting on my time at Calvert Hall, it's astounding to see how a foundation in fine arts can shape one's trajectory. It's a narrative that underscores the power of high school arts education – lessons that transcend the confines of an art studio, offering insights into life, work, and the serendipitous ways our passions steer our careers.

JASON S. SMITH '92 is the co-founder and managing director of Maquette Fine Arts Services with locations in New York City, Boston, Connecticut, and Maryland. In this capacity, they specialize in fine arts logistics – storing, crating, packing, transporting, installing, and rigging. Jason graduated with a BFA from Pratt Institute and an MFA in Sculpture from Hunter College. He lives in Brooklyn, New York.

Ten Houses, One Brotherhood

EVERY GOOD SCHOOL LOOKS TO IMPROVE, SO LAST MARCH, PETER BUTTARAZZI '24 AND CHARLIE SMITH '24 BEGAN A CONVERSATION ABOUT WAYS TO FURTHER FOSTER BROTHERHOOD, QUESTIONING IF OUR COMMUNITY WAS AS STRONG AS IT WAS PRE-COVID, OR EVEN 20 YEARS, 30 YEARS, OR 50 YEARS AGO?

WE KNOW THAT WE EMBRACE TRADITION IN EACH GRADE AND THERE SEEMS TO BE GOOD "CLASS" BONDING (HORIZONTAL), BUT THERE IS SPACE TO GROW IN BUILDING CONNECTIONS AND BROTHERHOOD BETWEEN GRADE LEVELS (VERTICAL). OUT OF THAT CONVERSATION EMERGED THE IDEA TO ORGANIZE A HOUSE SYSTEM AT CALVERT HALL.

By: Marc Parisi & Charles Motsay '76

WHAT IS THE HOUSE SYSTEM?

It's a way to connect students with one another while promoting unity, mentoring and increased spirit throughout the year by awarding points for fun competitions, support of activities, and high academic achievement.

With approval from the administration, Peter and Charlie recruited Luke Doetschman '24 and Mr. Motsay '76 to serve as student and faculty "Heads of Houses." Administrators attended a national conference over the summer to learn about other House Systems and their "best practices." We researched our school history to identify ten notable, now deceased, teachers and Brothers/Religious for whom the Houses are named. Unique banners and shields were designed for each House as a symbol of the life of each named person and their loving and memorable contribution to the school. Two faculty members were then asked to serve as House Directors assisted by twenty seniors and ten juniors to act as Student House Leaders.

The House System has breathed new life into Calvert Hall during the first semester. There is excitement in nearly everything we do as the House System unfolds and grows. It has given us a chance to rethink how and why we do almost everything when it comes to school life and culture. We are seeing different connections being built between older and younger students, between staff members and faculty, and between some students that would have otherwise never really crossed paths.

The second semester promises to be equally exciting. We will build up to a survivor-style, school-wide competition in May where Houses will try to convince everyone else that they built the strongest Brotherhood and that they should be awarded the House Cup.

Plans are already being made to expand the House System in the years ahead. Who knows where it will go or how it will evolve, but led by 10 dynamic figures from our past, and over 50 current leaders, we are embracing our traditions, building stronger relationships in the present, and creating a school community that is Ten Houses, One Brotherhood!

Mrs. Rogers, wife of the late Mr. Charlie, met with the Rogers House to share about Mr. Charlie's legacy.

CALVERT HALL IS HOME TO MORE THAN 1,200 YOUNG MEN AND 16,000+ LIVING ALUMNI. SINCE 1845 OUR IDENTITY HAS BEEN ROOTED IN CATHOLIC LASALLIAN TRADITION. STUDENTS ENTER THEIR NINTH-GRADE YEAR AS INDIVIDUALS AND QUICKLY DISCOVER THE BROTHERHOOD THAT AWAITS THEM. THESE TWELVE YOUNG MEN SHARE HOW THE CALVERT HALL BROTHERHOOD PLAYS A PIVOTAL ROLE IN THEIR LIVES.

WHAT DOES THE BROTHERHOOD MEAN TO YOU?

“For me, the Brotherhood is something that’s hard to express in a few sentences. At Calvert Hall, everyone is able to get a fresh start and experience an existing community 1200+ strong, and in turn, each person can leave their own distinct mark on the Brotherhood. The bonds I’ve made here with classmates and teachers are some of the strongest ones I’ve ever had. There are so many opportunities to get connected with people you never would have talked to otherwise. This truly feels like family to me, and I’m a better person because of it. At the end of the day, there’s nothing I can say to make someone else understand; you must experience it yourself.”

Peter Kelly '25 | Communications Club, It's Academic, McMullen Scholar, Varsity Baseball Manager | Outside of The Hall he works for Ripken Baseball

“The Brotherhood means everything to me. The Brotherhood means being able to connect with my classmates in many different ways. From clubs, classes, sports, and other activities the friendships built at The Hall are all interconnected. It allows Calvert Hall to be a big school with a small school feel while still feeling like you know everybody.”

Sisto Averno III '24 | McMullen Scholar, Varsity Football, Varsity Wrestling, Varsity Lacrosse, National Honor Society, Miceli House Leader | Outside of The Hall he volunteers coaching elementary and middle school recreational wrestlers and is a FCA Huddle Leader

“The Brotherhood is, to me, ultimately a sense of belonging and connection. A sense of having the ability not only to express myself fully, but also to have that expression be appreciated and built upon. Of course, Brotherhood is also having the opportunity to bond and interact with each unique student, to work alongside them for our collective futures.”

Donavan Howell '25 | Competition Marching Band, Jazz Combo, Wind Ensemble, Jazz Orchestra, Woodwind Ensemble, Varsity Track (Indoor & Outdoor), National Honor Society, Tri-M Honor Society, Theatre, Black Student Union | Outside of The Hall he works at Olive Garden

WHAT DO YOU GIVE TO THE BROTHERHOOD?

“I give my intellect, creativity, and talents to the Brotherhood every day. I reveal my gifts through my academics and activities. I always work hard, put in my best effort, and stay committed to everything that I do with a positive attitude. I am also willing to help others and make sure to treat everyone with kindness. Everyone, including teachers and students, are all going through different things in life and knowing that someone is there to give support or just be a friendly person is key to our Brotherhood.”

Connor Bravo '25 | Hallmen, Corridors, Madrigals, Theatre, Yearbook, Newspaper, Literary Magazine, Cyber Security, Quizbowl, It's Academic, Communications Club, McMullen Scholars Program, National Honor Society, National Spanish Honor Society, Tri-M Music Honor Society | Outside of The Hall he tutors fellow students and is a photographer for the school

“As a student of Calvert Hall, I believe I am a piece of the larger Brotherhood. I believe I give my love to this school, to my friends, and to my brothers. Calvert Hall has welcomed me with open arms and has encouraged me to express myself in and out of the classroom. Each day I am learning who I am and what I want to be. In turn this allows me to challenge my fellow brothers to do the same.”

Gregory Wilmot '27 | Weightlifting Club, Crockinal Club | Outside of The Hall he volunteers at Nativity Church as a Kids' Minister and is a men's gymnastics level 9 national qualifier.

“I give a source of friendship and compassion to the Brotherhood. I am always willing to extend a hand or an ear to anyone who may need it. Our Brotherhood is a collective made up of individuals. The more we are able to extend ourselves to show support, the more we become a whole and not a sum of our parts.”

Jacob Bockstie '25 | Outside of The Hall he is a member of Team USA Jr. Bowling earning a spot to compete at the Pan-Am games in South Korea this summer.

WHAT MAKES CALVERT HALL SPECIAL TO YOU?

“The faculty and student relationships I’ve built here at Calvert Hall is what I will value most when I graduate. The faculty really care about the students and make the effort to connect with students on a personal level, and I think my relationships with the faculty I have connected with will leave a positive imprint on the rest of my life.”

Jordan Lewis '24 | President of the Black Student Union, Yearbook, Admissions Ambassador, Peer Educator, National Honor Society, Newspaper, Crokinole, Clary House Leader | Outside of The Hall he serves as a Hollister brand representative

“Calvert Hall is special to me because of all the opportunities it has given me to excel as a student in the classroom and as a person outside of it. Through participating in band, debate, and student council at separate periods during my time here, I’ve learned a whole lot about the world and about myself.”

BROTHERHOOD

“There were multiple options for my high school, but I was drawn to the unique atmosphere of the Hall. Here, I feel like there’s a perfect balance of freedom and responsibility. For example, there’s time to unwind built into each day but you can choose how much free time you want to have. However, when you pick your classes, you hold yourself accountable for your actions; no one’s going to remind you to work on your project when you’re free. There’s always an opportunity to do better and move up, whether it be in extracurriculars or classes. We have teachers who want to help as much as possible, and there are always friends who can help you out.”

Increase Akinboboye '26 | Mock Trial, Speech & Debate, Theatre, Hallmen, Corridors, Madrigals | Outside of The Hall he serves in his church’s main choir and as a leader in the youth choir

WHAT HALL EXPERIENCE IS MOST MEMORABLE TO YOU?

“The most memorable experience I have had at Calvert Hall is when our basketball team defeated Loyola in early December this year. I was the livestream cameraman for the game and as many times as possible I panned to the crowd. It is the best high school sporting event crowd I’ve ever witnessed. It was such a great game and the rivalry made it just that much better.”

Caeleb Stein '26 | Communications Club, Homeroom Representative, The Leadership Institute, Pickleball, Track & Field (Indoor and Outdoor) | Outside of The Hall he works with the EC Life Teen Youth Group and as an umpire for HCYP Rec Baseball

“The service immersion trip to the Blackfeet Indian Reservation in Browning, Montana, was the most memorable experience I had while attending Calvert Hall. While in Montana, I experienced a new culture, nature, and the joy of community. In this place that seemed so foreign to me initially, my peers and I traveled across the country for a week and became a family that still loves each other to this day.”

Charlie Smith '24 | McMullen Scholar, National Honor Society, Science National Honor Society, Peer Minister, Student Council Chief of Staff, Lawn Games Club Founder, Communications Club, Varsity Squash, Varsity Golf, Cardinal Crazies, Italian Club, Pickleball Club, Cavalier House Leader | Outside of The Hall he volunteers at Our Daily Bread and Sarah’s Hope while also working as the outside golf operations for a local country club.

“As a freshman, the experience so far that is most memorable to me while attending Calvert Hall is the overnight Freshmen Retreat because it opened up a new pathway that I never have experienced before. The vulnerability of spirituality through Christ was shown all throughout the retreat and reflecting on the things in life deepened my perspective on life as a whole.”

Sebastian Macale '27 | McMullen Scholar, Asian Student Association, Culinary Club, Crokinole Club, Weightlifting Club, Hallmen, Homeroom Representative, Cardinal Crazies, JV Volleyball | Outside of The Hall he is a member of the Charm City Volleyball Club, volunteers as an Altar Server for St. Stephen’s, and volunteers to teach volleyball to elementary and middle schoolers

CARDINAL CRAZIES

By Club Moderator: Adam DeStefano

The Cardinal Crazies is made up of over 400 students from all grade levels. Our goal is to get more students out to games and create a larger sense of community in the process. Students sign-up at the beginning of the year during orientation and get a free t-shirt as well as a pass that allows them to receive free giveaway items during games. The giveaways can be anything from custom rally towels to free food and fun prizes. Each game also has a theme (ie. Hawaiian Night, Red Out...) meant to create a fun atmosphere and show unity within our crowd.

The more people we can get out to games the more we can make the games become an exciting destination. We want to make the games feel like a community and social event on the weekends. The more people and noise means more excitement. This gives students a shared fun experience together that they can look back on when they see each other in school the next week. We want our student-athletes to feel they are supported, and we want our students to feel like they have a place where they are welcomed. As our students go on and graduate, we want these games to be something they look back on as part of the identity of Calvert Hall. We want them to see this is a Brotherhood where we support each other, and where we celebrate our victories as a community.

DIALED IN WITH CARTER MARTIN '16

BROADCASTING & COMMUNICATIONS ASSISTANT | TEXAS RANGERS

Congrats on your one-year anniversary with the Rangers. What has been your path to getting a position with them?

My path to the Rangers truly began when I joined Communications Club during my senior year at The Hall, sparking my passion for sports journalism, digital media, broadcasting and photography. I completed a trio of internships in professional baseball (Bowie Baysox – 2019, Minnesota Twins – 2021, Cleveland Guardians – 2022) and learned from some amazing people who helped me secure my first permanent gig with the Rangers, which commenced in January 2023.

Describe the clubhouse energy during playoffs and eventually winning the World Series.

Leading up to each game, the atmosphere in the clubhouse was businesslike; our players did an exemplary job of keeping their focus fixated on the ultimate prize throughout the Postseason. Once the team won the World Series, though, that energy shifted to pure euphoria and elation – like waking up on Christmas morning as a child to a room full of presents.

Is it considered superstitious in your role to look ahead to the next playoffs series while still playing in the current round?

As a pure fan of sports, yes; I generally try not to look too far ahead when rooting for any of my teams out of fear of being disappointed if they come up short. Despite this, I was constantly planning for each subsequent Postseason series ahead of time, as media credential protocols, broadcast camera locations and press box layouts all needed to be finalized in case the team advanced.

What skills or knowledge did you learn at Calvert Hall that you find to be the most useful in your career?

Time management and prioritization skills I learned at Calvert Hall through balancing my free periods have proven to be very useful. Sports media moves at a blistering pace, so I've found it crucial to use spare time to get a head start on any outstanding projects, as you never know when a pressing matter will arise.

What is the best career advice you have received?

Stay humble and don't be afraid to ask questions no matter where you are in your career.

Who is the most memorable teacher you had at Calvert Hall?

Mr. Thaler. I will never forget the enthusiasm (and wardrobe, at times) he brought to Calculus. He also encouraged me to pursue a Mathematics minor in college!

Paul Scheel III, MD '08 wants to know - What was the best (and worst) use of your free periods while at Calvert Hall?

The best use of my free periods was spending time in George Young Plaza with inflatables and snowballs on Wacky Wednesdays. Other than that, I enjoyed using my free periods to catch up on work in the MRC or Noppinger Commons.
